(Matthew 19:26)

Jesus looked at them and said, 'With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.'

There is no present or considerable future impossibility with God. Even the security challenge in Nigeria that seems impossible to tackle remains under God's control. When we pray and say, 'God, please make this impossibility possible,' we fail to realise that these challenges are nothing but localized impossibilities.

Mark 9:23 says, "And Jesus said to him 'If you can?' All things are possible for one who believes.'

You can begin to change everything in your life if you begin to connect to the frequency of your faith and begin to build your faith. What you believe is what you attract. With God all things are possible and we can activate the same possibility simply by believing. We must earnestly wait on God even when the situation seems impossible. Over the next four weeks, we will be exploring the four ways to build our faith.

Visualize your desired possibilities: By virtue of visualization, we can achieve/acquire things that seemed to be beyond our capacity. We constantly attract what we keep our focus on. When Jacob wanted to alter the DNA of the animals of Laban so they could birth something they had never birthed, he put in front of the flocks a picture they had never seen. They looked at it long enough and it worked. If you look at it long enough, you will birth it.
